Association

The association "Austrian Association to Promote Russian Language and Culture" was founded in 2014 by Tatiana Stadler and Harald Loos. Both are language textbook authors and university teachers and had been closely working together with the "Austrian Centre for Russian Language and Culture", the former and long-time seminar organizer.

The Association strives to successfully continue the long tradition of Russian Seminars.

Russian Intensive Seminar in Vienna 10.07. – 22.07.2022

Target Group

Beginners, also without previous knowledge, and (more) advanced students of all levels who are interested in intercultural and intensive Russian classes.

Classes

Our classes focus on oral language skills.

In the morning: Classes are held in groups in which participants have been placed according to their language proficiency.

In the afternoon: Specializations such as writing and reading exercises for beginners, basic grammar, specific aspects of Russian grammar (verbs of motion, prepositions, aspects, etc.), Russian literature, business Russian, translation exercises, economic and social affairs, Russian movies, Russian folklore, modern Russian rock- and pop music, etc. are available across all groups. Participants can choose two groups according to their preference (спецкурсы).

All our teachers are experienced lecturers at Russian or Austrian universities.

Social Program

After class, we either dance Russian folk dances, play theater, watch movies or sing Russian songs. In addition, we offer a variety of lectures in Russian. Classes plus the social program take place from 09:00 a.m. to 05:00 p. m.

Fee

The seminar fee for July 2022 amounts to € 720.00 and includes lessons, teaching material and the social program.

The discount seminar for students is € 605.00 (for students born after 1 July 1995 with valid student ID)

Participation for only one week is also possible.
Please ask us for the details!
